EXHIBITIONS

There's still time to catch this year's Celebration of Craft exhibition, Yield. Take the opportunity to slow down and reflect with the collection of fine craft curated by Maegan Black. Yield is a partnered exhibition between PEI Crafts Council and Eptek Centre. It features twenty-four Island artisans who work in a variety of mediums, including textiles, ceramics, woodworking, jewellery, metalworks, and basketry. Learn about women's voting rights with the exhibition Votes for Women, commemorating the centennial of some women starting to gain voting privileges in PEI's provincial elections. This exhibition is split up into sections that are displayed at the seven PEI Museum and Heritage Foundation sites throughout the summer. To see the whole exhibition, visit Eptek Centre and the other six PEI Museum sites: Green Park Shipbuilding Museum & Yeo House, the Acadian Museum in Miscouche, Beaconsfield Historic House in Charlottetown, Orwell Corner Historic Village, Basin Head Fisheries Museum, and Elmira Railway Museum. Eptek Art & Culture Centre is a site of the Prince Edward Island Museum and Heritage Foundation and is located at 130 Heather Moyse Drive on the Summerside waterfront, adjacent to the Harbourfront Theatre. The site is open year-round. Exhibit admission is by donation (suggested donation $3). Please note: with the ever-changing COVID-19 situation, details are subject to change; there may be unexpected closures, or altered procedures. For more information call (902) 888-8373 (or visit us online at www.peimuseum.com or www.facebook.com/EptekCentre)
